Meghan Barry Little

Meghan Barry Little is an award winning performer, choreographer, instructor, and adjudicator. She is also an attorney currently practicing law in the state of Florida and is a proud honors graduate of The Florida State University. As a performer, Meghan received numerous high score awards and titles, scholarships to Broadway Dance Center and Steps in NYC. Meghan's choreography has been awarded numerous highest score and best choreography awards. She has served as a professional dance judge in almost every state across the United States and Canada. Meghan can be seen as a competition judge on the popular dance television series "Dance Moms". Meghan also competed in the Miss America Pageant system winning the titles of "Miss Florida State University", "Miss Tallahassee", "Miss Gulf Coast", and "Miss Southwest Florida", and was 2nd Runner-Up at the Miss Florida Pageant, and with that received numerous talent, swimsuit, interview, and educational excellence scholarships. She recently had the honor of judging the 2024 NAIA Collegiate Dance Nationals in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Meghan's students have gone on to receive college dance scholarships, to perform with Division 1 college dance teams, professional NBA teams, cruise ships, on the CMA's, and major Disney movies. Meghan is thrilled to share her passion for dance!

Madeline Kurtz Marcadis

Maddie Kurtz Marcadis is originally from Westport, CT, and received her early dance training at the D'valda and Sirico Dance and Music Centre under the direction of Angela D'valda Sirico, Steve Sirico, Jessica Rizzo-Stafford, and Jason Marquette. She holds a B.A. in Dance and Religious Studies from Colby College and an M.F.A. in Dance Performance and Choreography from SUNY Brockport. Maddie continues to teach and choreograph at studios and universities throughout the Southeast, while also creating and producing contemporary dance works for the concert stage with her company, MKrep. With interests rooted in the overlaps between concert and commercial dance, she has presented research at conferences including the National Dance Education Organization, The Dance Studies Association, and the Popular Culture Association. Maddie has been on faculty at Florida State University and the University of South Florida, and has served as a guest artist at Colby College and Utah Tech University. She is currently an Adjunct Professor of dance at the University of Tampa, Eckerd College, and Shenandoah University. Maddie has been judging for the past ten seasons with StarQuest and she is also on the roster of judges with Impact Dance Adjudicators. ## Cole Mills

Cole has over 25 years of international Ballroom Latin experience, winning a national title and representing the U.S at the world championships in Blackpool England at 12 years old. He did not take his first Ballet class until college, and by his sophomore year he danced professionally with a modern/contemporary company in NY, and was nominated for the largest art scholarship in the country by Montclair State University. Upon graduating, Cole signed with Bloc Talent Agency and appeared on SNL, The Blacklist, and in 2018 was one of the top 10 dancers that competed on the last live season 15 of Fox's 'So You Think You Can Dance'. Cole has since been living and working in LA as part of SAG AFTRA, appearing on Ellen, Kelly Clarkson, and assisting in choreography and movement direction. Now he choreographs for TV, stage, film, and maintains coaching for Modern/contemporary and Ballroom Latin dance and is a faculty member with IAX Dance Convention.

To my incredible dancers and families,

As I reflect on everything it took to bring this show to life, I am filled with nothing but gratitude. What you all have poured into this season so far—your time, your energy, your trust, and your hearts—does not go unnoticed. The dedication and sacrifice it takes to pull something like this off is significant, and every single family played a part in making it such a success.

What makes this team truly special is the way you continue to come together. Year after year, you grow stronger—not just as dancers, but as teammates. You support one another, rise to challenges, and push yourselves to be better than you were the day before. That kind of growth doesn't happen by accident. It comes from hard work, commitment, and a shared belief in something bigger than yourselves.

One moment that will stay with me forever is the birthday dance you performed for my grandma's 100th birthday. That gift meant more to my family than words can express. It was a beautiful reminder that this team is not just about trophies or titles—it's about heart, kindness, and showing up for one another in meaningful ways.

This season, you have chosen to make a statement. Your work ethic, your drive, and your determination to rise up and improve have been felt far beyond the stage. You are building something that the community notices and respects, and you should be incredibly proud of that.

Thank you for believing in this team, for trusting the process, and for giving it your all. I speak for my entire team of dedicated staff when I say that we are so proud of each and every one of you, and I am beyond grateful to be part of this journey with such an amazing group of dancers and families.

With so much love and appreciation,

Sarah
